The Cause

Serving America's At-Risk Youth

The YouthQuest Foundation, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization based in Chantilly, Virginia, provides academic and vocational development, infrastructure support and life-enriching experiences for America's at-risk youth. We believe the best way to prepare young people for productive lives is through quality education and the development of fundamental life skills. This tournament, our signature annual fundraising event, makes it possible for us to operate programs such as the 3D ThinkLink Initiative, which uses 3D design and printing to teach critical thinking and problem solving, encourage creativity and boost self-confidence. Our training helps troubled teens learn to think differently and make better decisions as they enter adulthood.

This is a rare opportunity to play Trump National's Championship Course, site of this year's Senior PGA Championship. The recently remodeled course features five holes along the edge of the Potomac River and a spectacular circular waterfall behind the 18th green. Golf Digest ranked it as one of the best new private courses of 2016. Secluded, luxurious and picturesque, Trump National, Washington, DC offers an extraordinary experience for golfers.
